

In honor of:

National Diversity Employment
Awareness Month & the U-M DEI Summit

October 2020

All B&F Staff:

You are invited!

Session 1: “Disability Awareness”

Friday, October 16, 10:00 a.m.—11:00 a.m.

Session 2: “Disability Etiquette”

Tuesday, October 20, 2:00 p.m.—3:00 p.m.

Both sessions facilitated by Christina Kline from the Office for Institutional Equity

In these two sessions, you will learn to:

- Recognize the impact of language as it pertains to the topic of disability
- Apply specific tips for communicating with individuals with disabilities
- Determine how your own unintentional biases and assumptions about individuals with disabilities may interfere with your ability to relate well with individuals who have disabilities
- Use appropriate questions to determine whether an individual with a disability need assistance or accommodation.
- Identify ways to better help individuals with disabilities, including those accompanied by service animals

Note: you are encouraged to attend both sessions, but can still benefit by attending only one.

RSVP here

to receive your Zoom link to attend the online session(s)